

Technology

- “The resources and tools offered for virtual students are also more than adequate. In fact, the scope of resources and tools for virtual students has never left me wishing or feeling a need to visit the campus. I feel that I made the best possible decision for my education and future in choosing this MLIS program.”
- “I really appreciated learning how to incorporate emerging technologies into library work (Collaborate, Jing, Guide on the Side, web design, etc.).”