San José State University - San José, California

POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT

Subject to Budgetary Approval

Department: School of Information
Specialization: Information Retrieval System Design
Rank: Lecturer - Non Tenure Track

Qualifications:

- A Master’s or doctoral degree in Library and Information Science, or a closely related field, and at least three years of professional applied experience.
- Applied experience outside of academic settings is preferred.
- Deeply enthusiastic about 100% online learning.
- An awareness of and sensitivity to the educational goals of a multicultural population as might have been gained in cross-cultural study, training, teaching and other comparable experience.

Responsibilities:

- Teach four 100% online courses each Fall and each Spring in the area of information retrieval systems. The focus will be on our required core course INFO 202 Course: Information Retrieval System Design
- Advise online graduate students
- Engage in the school's curriculum development
- Take a leadership role in engaging students with professional associations at the local, national and international level
- Demonstrate awareness and experience understanding the needs of a student population of great diversity – in age, cultural background, ethnicity, primary language and academic preparation.

The School of Information delivers all degrees and certificates 100% online. It offers:

- 3 masters degrees: Library and Information Science (MLIS) [accredited by the American Library Association], Archives and Records Administration (MARA), and an MS in Informatics
- 1 credential program: Teacher Librarian Credential program [Accredited by the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing].

The iSchool is a member of the largest international consortium of Information Schools dedicated to advancing the information field; and serving 2000 students educates the largest number of graduate students at San José State University.

More information about the School of Information at San José State University can be found here. Questions should be sent to Dr. Linda Main, Associate Director, at Linda.Main@sjsu.edu

Salary Range: Commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Starting Date: Fall 2020

Eligibility: Employment is contingent upon proof of eligibility to work in the United States.
Application Procedure:

For full consideration, send a letter of application, curriculum vitae, a statement addressing the qualifications and responsibilities outlined above, and at least three original letters of reference with contact information by January 3rd, 2020 to https://apply.interfolio.com/70918

Inquiries may be directed to Dr. Linda Main, Associate Director, at Linda.Main@sjsu.edu.

San José State University enrolls over 35,700 students, a significant percentage of whom are members of minority groups. As such, this position is for scholars interested in a career at a national leader in graduating URM students. SJSU is a Hispanic Serving Institution (HSI) and Asian American and Native American Pacific Islander (AANAPISI) Serving Institution; 40% of our students are first-generation, and 38% are Pell-qualified. The university is currently ranked fifth nationally in increasing student upward mobility. The University is committed to increasing the diversity of its faculty so our disciplines, students, and the community can benefit from multiple ethnic and gender perspectives.

San José State University is California’s oldest institution of public higher learning. Located in downtown San José (Pop. 1,000,000) in the heart of Silicon Valley, SJSU is part of one of the most innovative regions in the world. As Silicon Valley’s public university, SJSU combines dynamic teaching, research, and university-industry experiences to prepare students to address the biggest problems facing society. SJSU is a member of the 23-campus California State University (CSU) system.

San José State University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer. We consider qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, age, gender, gender identity/expression, sexual orientation, genetic information, medical condition, marital status, veteran status, or disability. This policy applies to all San José State University students, faculty, and staff as well as University programs and activities. Reasonable accommodations are made for applicants with disabilities who self-disclose. Note that all San José State University employees are considered mandated reporters under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and are required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

The latest San José State University Safety 101 Uniform Campus Crime and Security Report is available. You may request a copy of San José State University’s annual safety report by contacting the University Police Department at (408) 924-2222 or by visiting the University Police Department website at (http://www.sjsu.edu/police/).